

Puget Sound Steelhead Recovery Team – June 27th

When: June 27, 2014 from 10am-3pm

Where: 7600 Sand Point Way NE, Seattle, WA 98115, Building 1 - Regional Administrator's conference room

AGENDA:

1. Meeting Overview and Objectives – Elizabeth Babcock (10:00am – 10:05am)
 - a. Review TRT population identification and viability findings and the Hood Canal and Nisqually pilot projects, continue to organize recovery plan development, and check in on first recovery team task
2. Introductions – Members that missed the kick-off meeting (10:05am – 10:15am)
 - a. Members absent June 6th share professional background, role on the recovery team, and areas of expertise (~5 min per member)
3. TRT Population Identification and Viability Analyses – Jeff Hard (10:15am – 11:15am)
 - a. Review the PSSTRT's analysis approach, results, and implications of this work to developing Recovery Goals and Scenarios.
4. Recovery Goals & Scenarios – Joe Anderson (11:15am – 11:45pm)
 - a. Progress update, next steps for model scoping and evaluation, and opportunity to address questions.

LUNCH – We will provide light lunch (11:45pm – 12:30pm)

5. Watershed Pilot Projects – Chris Ellings and Susan O'Neil (12:30pm – 1:30pm)
 - a. Review approaches and outcomes from two pilot projects for watershed-level Puget Sound steelhead recovery planning in the Hood Canal (Susan O'Neil) and Nisqually (Chris Ellings).
 - b. Group Discussion (1:30pm – 2:00pm) – How can we build from the strengths of both pilot approaches to develop a Template for Watershed Recovery Plans?
6. Draft Work Plan Discussion – Alison Agness (2:00pm – 2:45pm)
 - a. Summary of feedback to date and introduce Phase 2 tasks.
7. Recovery Team Task and Other Reminders– Elizabeth Babcock (2:45pm – 3:00pm)
 - a. Review Timeline/Expectations - Recovery Team's First Task
 - b. Administrative Updates - grants and contracts in progress
 - c. Other Reminders – Google Drive Instructions, sign up to host meetings, next meeting
8. Public Comments